Fairfield Police and Connecticut State Police Troop G working in partnership to support the opening of Sacred Heart University's Martire Family Arena! We re so happy to serve and protect the great citizens of our community!

Fairfield Animal Control welcomes their newest part-time Animal Control Officer, Emily Bump. Emily is a Criminal Justice graduate from the University of New Haven, and a former State of Connecticut DEEP Seasonal Officer.

On January 13th, Officer Nicholas Ardizzone and K9 Bolt completed their basic training course and have been certified as a Police K9 Team! Officer Ardizzone and K9 Bolt are certified in tracking, building searches, suspect apprehension, and narcotics detention. Congratulations to Officer Ardizzone and a Welcome to K9 Bolt!

The Fairfield Police Department welcomes our Interns for the Spring 2023 Semester, Connor Greene and Hannah Vogt! Connor is a Criminal Justice major at Sacred Heart University and Hannah is a Politics Major at Fairfield University. Both have a genuine interest in careers in law enforcement and we're excited to start working with them!

Congratulations to Officer Christian Lewczak who graduated the Bridgeport Police Academy this past Friday! Officer Lewczak now begins a 3 month long field training and evaluation program, during which he learns from experienced officers and his performance is evaluated daily. Upon completion of field training, he will be assigned to the Patrol Division.
